I'm confused with the Anki deck for spelling rules, some of the questions or rules don't make sense. It says , for instance, when the " that's hard to see but it's a dot, is under a letter it makes an /o/ sound, but shows a picture where it's over the letter! Then another card you've got to guess the vowel based on the sound, but two of the vowels make the same sound in modern Hebrew! So I couldn't possibly guess which one you're referring to. Lastly, so I've got to do the rules and the minimal pairs separately, am I supposed to? In the rule cards there's a lot of information and I can't figure out what I'm supposed to focus on. There's info on the matres lectiones (spelling wrong) at the bottom, but for modern Israeli Hebrew pronunciation I've read that That's not part of the pronunciation rules.	2/1/18	Not Fixed	N/A	Overall, I'm not seeing a lot we should change except for possibly some clarifications to ALL of the readme files (requests 3+4) and some brainstorming about whether there's a way to clarify point #1.
